SUMMARY OF COMMENTS

Manor is a fantastic School.

Manor is a caring nurturing school which has built the confidence of my children and would definitely recommend the school to other parents.

My child has progressed so much with his reading. The children feel so cared for and so happy.

A few stories heard about behaviour at lunch tables and how another child tries to take my child's food.

Age appropriate homework is difficult to assess as parameters are not known.

Although information I received about progress is good it is infrequent. Two meeting since September is not enough.

Maybe more comment in reading books.

I would like to think that teachers are following procedures re illness i.e chickenpox.
